LYME Regis Town Council has scrapped its plans to charge all year round for evening car parking after a petition against increased charges was signed by almost 700 people.

The online petition was launched after the council proposed to increase parking charges at Monmouth Beach from £1 to £1.20 an hour and to charge between 6pm and 9pm in the evenings all year around.

But when the matter was put to full council last week for a final decision, councillors were asked to consider the effect the increase would have on visitors. Following a lengthy debate, they agreed to scrap the evening charges outside of the peak season but to stick with the increased hourly charges.

Speaking in the public forum, Mark Evans, owner of Tierra Kitchen in Coombe Street, said: "I think by increasing parking charges and, in particular, by making it later in the evening, people on their first visit might swallow it but it might just stick with them and be a lasting impression in their minds.

"I understand that making revenue is tough and parking really does go towards the town's finances. Just have a little thought about people's lasting impression."

Lyme resident Ken Gollop requested that the council allow local ratepayers to park for free after 6pm all year round at Monmouth Beach.

Darren Herbert, a local business owner and member of Lyme Regis Sea Angling Club, said that many club members came from outside of the town, always spending money in Lyme during their visits, but would not be able to afford to do so if the charges applied after 6pm.

"People coming in my shop will have to pay more in car parking charges than what they want to spend in my shop," he added.

District councillor George Symonds, who is also owner of Lyme Regis Amusement Arcade, said: "I have also been contacted by quite a lot of the business community. Their concern is that charging in evening may deter trade. If we are seen as expensive for car parking it could have an adverse effect on the town and stop people from coming.

"The council are well known for having quite substantial funds and I understand that there are projects which the council are looking at doing, but it may give us a name of being an expensive town to come to."

The Reverend Jane Skinner added: "When I talk to

■ MIXED VIEWS: Councillor Michaela Ellis said there was 'no point' charging in the evenings if it couldn't be enforced, but Councillor Stan Williams said the extra charge could raise money for new facilities for local taxpayers people across the Marshwood Vale the two words that are always joined with Lyme Regis are 'car parking', and what they mean by that is that it's difficult, it's seen as an issue. My encouragement would be not to couple that with an expensive issue."

Simon Lippett from Rousdon, who set up the online petition, said: "It has been mentioned that there would be some kind of loyalty scheme for Lyme residents, but vast majority of members of the sea angling club and others coming to Lyme in the evenings actually live in the outer areas, and the post 6pm charge would MARCUS Cridland BA (Hons) F.C.A. is the managing director of Scott Vevers accountants in Bridport.

He was born in Weymouth in 1971 and has lived there all his life and now lives with his wife Tina and two daughters.

He attended Radipole Primary School then went on to Weymouth Grammar School (which is now Budmouth College) to complete his GCSEs before undertaking his 'A'-levels at Weymouth College.

Mr Cridland studied for an accounting degree at Bournemouth University before qualifying as a chartered accountant with a firm in 1997.

He has been at Scott Vevers for 16 years having started with the firm in 1999 as a manager and in 2008 became managing director.

In his spare time, Mr Cridland enjoys spending time with his family and cycling and can be seen on his weekly rides around Weymouth and Portland.

He is also a school governor and a member of Mensa.

● WHAT encouraged you to pursue a career in accounting?

From a very young age, I had a good grasp of numbers and logic, and I chose maths and computer 'A'-levels, so accountancy made sense. I have always been interested in businesses and they will always need accountants.

● TELL us a bit more about being a member of Mensa

The society welcomes people from every walk of life whose IQ is in the top two per cent of the population, with the objective of enjoying each other's company. There are regular local and national events and meetings in which we can participate in a wide range of social and cultural activities.

● WHEN did you find out your IQ was in the top two per cent and what kind of activities have you been a part of while being a member?

In a newspaper when I was about 21, there was the opportunity to do a test at home and then if you did well enough you could put in for the official Mensa test under exam conditions, which I successfully took in Bourne-mouth. There are monthly get-togethers such as ten-pin bowling, quiz nights and many more or just meeting at the pub for drinks and a chat.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● WHAT would you most like to achieve in the next five years?

In business, I would like the firm to continue to grow and help clients to grow their businesses and reduce their taxes. Outside of work, I would like to ride 100 miles or more on my bike. I did 42 miles recently but punctures held me back!

● WHAT is your favourite thing about where you live?

The seaside - When I was young, I was able to regularly enjoy playing on the beach and swimming in the sea and it is wonderful now as a parent to be able to do those same things with my family.

● WHAT three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Albert Einstein as he would be an intelligent and interesting guest, Pele as I must have someone to talk football with! And Michael McIntyre as he will ensure that there is plenty of laughter.

If you would like to take part in the 60 Second Interview, call Francesca Evans on 01297 446154 or email francesca@pemedi.co.uk or call Lottie Welch on 01297 446161 or email lottie@pemedi.co.uk

Council agrees it cannot judge artwork to be displayed in town

LYME Regis Town Council has gone back on its suggestion that artists should submit their work for councillors' approval before it is displayed in public spaces, saying this would not work as art is "subjective".

Following the town's first sculpture trail, held as part of the annual ArtsFest event, councillors suggested that artists should submit their work for approval before future events. The idea came after councillors expressed concern over some of the installations, particularly the painting of the gazebo in Langmoor Gardens, which they feared would encourage graffiti.

Speaking at last week's full council meeting, where councillors were due to finalise their decision on the matter, curator of the sculpture trail, John Calder, asked members to think again.

Mr Calder said he had considered the trail to be a "resounding success" before hearing the concerns of the council, which he described as "ill informed" and "based on the personal views of two councillors rather than the broader view".

He spoke about the benefits of the trail, including the visitors it attracted, and said that other landowners around the town, including West Dorset District Council, had allowed sculpture to remain in place for an extended period.

Mr Calder said he questioned why the selection of art should be the responsibility of the council and read a statement from Councillor Anita Williams, who was not present at the meeting, which backed up his argument, saying it was "not appropriate for councillors to be the arbiters of what is acceptable as art".

Councillor Michaela Ellis said she also had a issue with inviting artists to submit their work to the council, adding that it would be better if one councillor sat on the ArtsFest committee and reported back to the council.

Councillor Brian Larcombe, one of the members who raised concerns over the sculptures at a previous meeting, said his overriding issue had been the painting of the gazebo.

"Will it now represent a blank canvas for graffiti?" he asked.

However, he added that he did not want to "hampers or impede the freedom of expression of art" or question the judgment of the curator.

Councillor Cheryl Reynolds described the gazebo as a "quiet and peaceful place to sit", adding that she would not like to see this kind of painting in it again.

Councillor Richard Doney spoke in support of the arts community, saying it had a "huge amount to offer Lyme Regis" and attracted many visitors. He said he would like to see a permanent sculpture trail on display in the future and he was hoping to get views of how the council could help ArtsFest at the organisation's upcoming annual general meeting.

He also offered to act as a council representative on the ArtsFest committee.

Police warn of counterfeit Scottish notes

POLICE have received reports of counterfeit Scottish £20 notes being used in Lyme Regis over the past week.

A white man approximately six feet tall, in his 30s with dark hair and described as being "well groomed" and wearing a dark jacket, took one from a large wad of notes to pay for food in a Broad Street store. When taken to the bank it was discovered to be a fake.

A police spokesperson warned: "Please take care and ensure you use a banknote scanner to check the authenticity of banknotes especially high denomination ones."

■ POLICE have been out this week offering advice on safe parking outside schools in Lyme Regis after complaints were received about drivers parking on zigzag lines.

Officers observed the morning school run outside Woodroffe, where the majority of drivers kept clear of the zebra crossing and zigzag lines.

They then visited St Michael's Primary where a warning was issued to a van driver parked on the yellow zigzag.

Police have warned that these lines are now enforceable and should not be parked on Monday to Friday between 8am and 5pm.

Church and school's Christmas cracker

■ NAME the cuddly toys - just one of the stalls run by the pupils.

PARISH church congregation members and pupils of St Michael's Primary School joined forces again on Saturday to organise their annual Christmas fayre at the Woodmead Halls.

The event marks the start of Christmas celebrations in Lyme Regis and attracted a happy crowd who were eager to snap up a seasonal bargain.

The event was opened by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, accompanied by his wife Christine, the mayoress, who were greeted at the entrance to the halls by the Vicar, the Reverend Jane Skinner.

Councillor Lovell, who was introduced by town crier Alan Vian, wished the event every success and encouraged those present to be as generous as possible.

A number of pupils from the Church of England School ran their own attractions and competitions to help boost funds.

Takings at the event totalled £1,682 with profits being divided between the church fabric fund and the school.

Yuletide Lyme to give businesses a boost

LYME Regis Business Group is actively working towards creating a successful Christmas season for local traders, by encouraging them to participate in a town-wide "Yuletide Lyme" campaign.

The idea is to create a great Christmas atmosphere around town that encourages local residents, second home owners and visitors to think and shop local, creating a very special community atmosphere and generating much needed revenue for the town during what is traditionally low season.

The campaign kicks off on Saturday, November 28th, named Switch-On Saturday, as the town's sparkling Christmas lights begin to dazzle.

In addition to the traditional Switch-On Saturday activities, including the lantern workshop, competition and parade, Santa's grotto and the big switch-on itself, this year's painted windows competition will also get underway, with more businesses than ever joining in the festive window trail.

This year's theme is Christmas trees and each participating window has a letter hidden in its painting. Collect all the letters, uncover the hidden phrase and you could win a lovely hamper jam-packed with Lyme Regis goodies.

Yuletide Lyme has a Facebook page where local businesses can post their festive activities, offers and special events, and a Twitter feed to promote the initiative. It's hoped that as many businesses as possible will get involved and help make Lyme Regis a 'must visit' destination over the festive period.

In the run up to Christmas, Yuletide Lyme will also be actively promoting as many festive events as possible, including Small Business Saturday on December 5th – a nationwide campaign backed by American Express and designed to encourage local communities to support their local businesses, for which Lyme Regis Town Council has offered free parking in its car parks at Monmouth Beach and Woodmead Halls.

The campaign will also promote the hugely popular Carols Around the Tree event, organised on Wednesday, December 23rd by Lyme Regis Rotary Club.

Posters are already popping up around town promoting the initiative and organisers hope that local businesses will get in touch by emailing info@lymeregisbusinessgroup.org, through the Facebook page at www.facebook.com/YuletideLyme or through Twitter @yuletidelyme with their ideas for creating a festive atmosphere around town in the run up to Christmas.

From serving mince pies and mulled wine while you shop, to hosting Christmas fairs and special events or promoting special seasonal offers, every one of these activities, large or small, helps to make Lyme Regis an extra special place to be this December.

And there'll be plenty of festive fun in Charmouth too!

CHARMOUTH will host its annual Christmas Fayre on Saturday, November 27th to tie in with the switching on of the village's Christmas lights display.

Events will start at 4.45pm when children will parade up The Street, starting at the fire station and ending outside Nisa, along with Father Christmas and the fire engine. Father Christmas will then take his place in his grotto outside Nisa, which will be open to children throughout the evening for £2 per child.

The switch-on of the Christmas lights will be held at 5pm, carried out by chairman of the parish council Peter Noel.

Local shops will be offering mulled wine, mince pies and other festive treats, as well as a number of special activities including raffles, tombolas, beauty treatments, face painting and a treasure hunt around the village.

Entries to the treasure hunt should be completed and returned to Morgans of Charmouth by 6.30pm, with winners announced at 7pm.

There will also be a free toy exchange at St

Andrew's Church, as well as a lucky dip, chocolate fondue and Christmas colouring. Charmouth Library will be hosting a pop-up art exhibition, Christmas decoration making workshop and craft fair.

To promote your Christmas event in the View, call Francesca on 01297 446154 or email francesca@pemedial.co.uk

Councillor suggests demolishing theatre and building a new one

A TOWN councillor has suggested knocking down the Marine Theatre and re-developing the whole site.

Councillor Derek Hallett made the "ambitious" suggestion after hearing a report on the progress of Lyme Arts Community Trust, which manages the theatre, from new artistic director Clemmie Reynolds.

Miss Reynolds laid out how she was intending to develop income streams for the theatre, which receives £32,000 in funding from the town council annually. She said she wanted to develop the facility as a major draw to visitors, as well as a vital asset to the local community.

But Councillor Hallett said he did not think she was "going far enough". He suggested building a new café and bar on the ground floor, a new theatre on the first floor and six £500,000 apartments on the top floor.

"You could pay for yourself, you wouldn't need anymore money from anyone. You'd have to do a lot of work to raise the money to do it but you'd have a brand new facility that could support the town for the next 200 years. I don't think you're looking big enough."

Councillor Brian Larcombe described the idea as "very ambitious".

However, Miss Reynolds' report focused on raising funds to make repairs and improvements to the existing theatre building.

She said she had completed four grant funding applications since taking up her post in August and the recent "Grow Your Tenner" campaign raised £2,000. She has also formed a group to organise and fundraising dinner in April next year and is looking for corporate sponsors and patrons for the theatre.

Other ideas included a season of open air performances on Theatre Square next summer, and attracting a younger age group to the Marine by hosting regular open-mic, club or cocktail nights each month for "young professionals".

Councillors praised Miss Reynolds for her enthusiasm and ideas, and emphasised the importance of using council funding for repairs to the structure of the building, particularly the roof.

Miss Reynolds and David Edwards of Lyme Arts Community Trust, said they has spent £11,500 this year on repairing the front roof, they had a team of volunteers re-decorating the rear of the building and in recent years had also spent £5,000 re-rendering the outside of the building.

The Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell, described the presentation as "vibrant" and said he thought it was the most optimistic report the council had been given on the theatre.

Monmouth beach 'risk to lives'

A TOWN councillor warned not to "put lives at risk for the sake of a few shillings" as his fellow members agreed to bring Ware Cliff chalets and caravans back into use following landslides.

Two areas of the Ware Cliff chalet and caravan site at Monmouth Beach were taken out of use following landslides – one section in 2010 and one in 2013.

A report presented to councillors by the town clerk said that land movement had been regularly monitored in these areas since by the council's geotechnical engineer, and the rate of movement had reduced significantly.

Planning permission would have to be sought to bring the sites back into use, and the town clerk suggested that the council foot the bill of any planning and professional fees, while chalet owners cover all other costs, including demolition and construction.

It is estimated that the council could make £15,000 a year if the sites were brought back into use.

However, Councillor Daryl Turner warned fellow members that the site was too dangerous.

"I'm not happy with this at all, I think it's too early," he said.

"I would not put people at risk for the sake of a few shillings and I will vote against it."

Councillor John Broom spoke in favour of bringing the sites back into use but described the area further along Monmouth Beach, where 11 new chalets were under construction, as "chaos" and added that, as freeholder of the land, the council should have more say with what happens on the site.

Councillors said they would also have to consider who was allocated the new chalets – those who had recently lost former chalets on the same site or those who had been waiting for replacement chalets for the longest.

Members agreed to allow officers to enter discussions with those who have an interest in the site and draw up a planning application.

New volunteers needed to host annual Summer Show

UPLYME & Lyme Regis Horticultural Society will not be able to hold its annual Summer Show unless new volunteers can be found.

A spokesperson for the society said: "Three of the society's committee of 12 are retiring – they are longstanding, hardworking members who feel, understandably, it is time for a rest."

"The committee has therefore shrunk to such a size that we cannot put on a Summer Show. It is beyond current capabilities."

"We have organised a good range of outings and talks for 2016-17 so our calendar has many highlights, (see the website <https://ulrhs.wordpress.com/events/>) but we have reached our manpower limit."

"We are therefore appealing for more committee members and volunteers, immediately, or the Summer Show will have to be cancelled. The cut-off date for this decision is mid-December."

The society will be holding its annual general meeting tonight (Wednesday) at 7.30pm in Uplyme Village Hall. Anyone interested in volunteering should attend the AGM or call Jenny Harding on 01297 444034 or email jennyh-lyme@hotmail.co.uk

Council votes against introducing evening car park charges after hundreds support petition make a big difference to people."

Councillor Michaela Ellis also spoke against charging after 6pm in both Monmouth Beach and the Woodmead Halls car parks.

"If we do decide to charge during these hours it will have to be enforced and that's going to be a cost to the council, so I just can't see the point of it," she said.

However, Councillor Stan Williams argued that extra income made from evening charges could go towards providing facilities for the people of Lyme Regis.

"Car parking is very important to our income," he commented.

"We should be using the money to help the people of Lyme Regis, we've got lots of jobs to do. Council taxpayers get a terrible deal. They're the people who elect us and they're the people who have sadly been lacking in facilities."

Councillor Daryl Turner said: "There's been a fair number of negative comments from local businesses, especially on social media, over the last couple of weeks. But one obvious question has not been asked by the businesses and that's quite simply, 'what is the council intending to do with the extra money it collects?'"

"We've listed a number of things we want to do which will bring more people to the town, not less. Look at what's happening in Bridport and Seaton; they are changing and improving, they will be competition to us, and we need to change as well."

Councillor Cheryl Reynolds added: "Lyme Regis Town Council is a business. To run a business you have to make a profit. The only difference is, when the council makes a profit, it puts the money back to projects in the town."

Councillor Sean Larcombe expressed concern that introducing evening charges would require further enforcement and the council would not end up with any extra income. The town clerk confirmed that the council's existing enforcement officers could provide cover during evenings in the peak season.

The Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell, then proposed to allow free parking for all between 6pm and 9pm outside of the peak season, i.e. from the end of October half term to the Monday before Easter weekend, which was agreed. Councillors noted that Easter was particularly early in 2016 but agreed this time period would remain the same despite the Easter date changing each year.

Councillor John Broom described this as "a wonderful British compromise" but Councillor Williams said he felt this was "too short a period" for charging in the evenings.

Councillor Ellis said she would like to see the same charging times applied to Woodmead Halls car park, where evening charges were already in place, which was also agreed.

Although members agreed to scrap the all-year-round evening charges, councillors agreed to stick with the increased cost of £1.20 an hour in Monmouth Beach and to keep the existing cost of £1 an hour at Woodmead.

■ WE DID IT! One of the sailing club's Oppie Cadet class celebrate having completed their seven-week course

Sailing club sees influx of young members thanks to grant funding

A FUNDING grant from the John Merricks Trust, used to buy three training Optimist dinghies, has "transformed life" at Lyme Regis Sailing Club.

The three boats enabled to club to start up its own Oppie Cadets club to teach children from the age of six to sail, something previously not available at the club until they were aged 10. The introduction of the course has led to an influx of new, younger family members who have been keen to get involved in the club, with two new parent members now serving on the committee.

The Optimists have been used to run two seven-week courses during the year and a total of 22 children have been taught to sail in them.

From those who have completed the course, 10 have gone on to purchase, or are actively looking to purchase, their own Optimists.

The club will be running a further two beginners' courses in 2016, of which both are almost 80 per cent full and bookings are already being taken for 2017, as well as improvers and intermediate courses for those who have their own boats.

A spokesperson for the club said: "Without the help of the John Merricks Trust to fund this project we would not have had the successful year we have had at Lyme Regis Sailing Club."

Fernhill Hotel to support CLIC Sargent this Christmas

THE Fernhill Hotel in Charmouth has pledged to support children and young people this December with the Deck the Halls Dorset Christmas Countdown.

The countdown, organised by CLIC Sargent local fundraising manager Joy Morley, has been designed to involve as many local businesses, schools, and clubs to raise awareness for children with cancer this Christmas.

The annual Fernhill craft fair, now in its second year and taking place on December 5th, will help to support the cause.

The fair is being organised by Grace Hancock, events manager at Fernhill Hotel, and will include a wide variety of stalls from talented local crafters, cake makers and artists.

Last year CLIC Sargent supported 74 families across Dorset. For the majority of Dorset families, they must travel to Southampton General Hospital where treatment starts immediately, and often takes place regularly lasting as long as three years, many miles from home.

CLIC Sargent funds a Home from Home in Southampton which provides free self catering accommodation to Dorset families, allowing all of the family to stay together and stay close to their child in hospital. With new cancer treatments some Dorset families find themselves having to stay in Southampton for up to nine months at a time, some over the Christmas period.

When families return home to Dorset, CLIC Sargent has specialist nurses and social workers in the county who continue to support families throughout their child's treatment.

Grace said: "As a GBTS Gold award-winner for Green Tourism, and Sustainable Tourism Silver award winner, we at Fernhill are passionate about supporting the local community. Having the opportunity to support those among us in need through CLIC Sargent as well as our local crafters and businesses is fantastic."

"We hope our support can help to alleviate the strain on their young shoulders this Christmas."

Joy added: "We are absolutely thrilled that Fernhill craft fair has chosen to make this wonderful contribution through collecting at their craft fair to help support children and young people with cancer this Christmas."

"We really appreciate the hard work and generosity that has gone in to organising the event and hope that the local community will go along and show their support on the 5th December."

If you would like to support CLIC Sargent this Christmas, contact Joy on 01392 314 674, or for more information about the fair visit the Facebook page "Fernhill Christmas Craft Fair".

QUALITY PRODUCTS YOU CAN AFFORD FROM A LOCAL NAME YOU CAN TRUST

Unit 2A Corbin Way, Gore Cross Business Park, Bridport.

Why I'm rooting for the Marine

I'VE always been a big fan of the Marine Theatre. And not just because it's where I did a great deal of my courting in the days when as many as 600 would crowd into the Marine to see some of the country's top pop groups.

I've compered dozens of events at the Marine over the years and have always emphasised how lucky Lyme is to have the theatre by the sea.

I remember back in the 1980s when I was involved in a week of entertainment organised by then Lyme resident, TV personality Richard Digance, with the help of the cricket club, in a bid to save the hospital, and how his showbiz friends all thought the Marine was a brilliant asset to the town, despite its unkempt appearance and cramped facilities. Jim Davidson was a big admirer.

Many of the big names who include Lyme on their list of tour venues make similar comments, including more recently John Challis, who played Boycey in Only Fools and Horses and who tweeted ecstatically about it.

It is true to say that the Marine has had a very chequered history over the years and it's only in more

by Philip Evans

recent times, since the building was taken over by the Lyme Regis Arts Trust, that it has found a real niche.

The old building suffered greatly through a lack of investment by successive councils and the cost of keeping the fabric watertight and in reasonable order must be a continual worry to the trust. Recognising the value to the town, and the amount of voluntary work that goes into it, the town council has been generous in recent times with annual funding, currently at the level of £32,000.

West Dorset District Council chips in with a more modest amount, although nowhere near as much as they spend on Bridport Arts Centre. I've never really understood why this venue is more deserving.

Last week the council received an excellent presentation from the Marine's new artistic director, Clemmie Reynolds, who has already developed a passion for the old place. She has some great ideas and I wish her well in her efforts to develop the Marine's role in the social and cultural life of Lyme.

Some will argue that £32,000 is a big enough chunk of the town council's budget to support such a facility. Personally, I think it's money well spent.

Now I have to declare a personal interest. With my Lyme Regis Musical Theatre President's hat on, I don't think we should lose sight of the fact that as well as offering a year-round programme of events, especially popular with visitors, the Marine also provides a venue for our home-grown productions performed by the former operatic society, the Pantomime Society and Lyme Drama (new name for the Drama Club).

Those who are not as enthusiastic about the Marine often argue that the local stage groups could go to the Woodmead Halls. That will never happen. The halls is a great community facility, one of the finest in Dorset, but it will never be a theatre.

A huge burden borne by the trust is the cost of replacing the roof at the Marine to render the building watertight. It will cost at least £90,000 to do so and the longer it takes to raise this money, the higher the cost is going to be.

The suggestion by new councillor Derek Hallett at a council meeting last week that the town should be more forward thinking with the Marine site, putting forward the idea that it should be demolished and replaced by shops on the lower level, a theatre, restaurant and flats is unlikely to meet with widespread approval and as his colleague Brian Larcombe pointed out, might be a tad over-ambitious.

But if the Marine is to survive, some significant investment has to be forthcoming. There's a limit to what a small theatre can raise through voluntary fundraising and if Lyme is really committed to retaining the Marine a solution to its ongoing protection in such a vulnerable exposed position has to be forthcoming.

Is this something the town council could add to their list of priorities for future years?

Lyme would be a lesser place without the Marine.

+++ COUNCIL WATCH +++

○ IT was reassuring to hear town clerk John Wright inform councillors that their behaviour was no longer a risk factor for the council - in stark contrast to the previous administration which had to be warned twice by their chief officer to behave in a more acceptable manner.

The town clerk's intervention - a brave move - was unprecedented in local government in this part of the world. He did so because the behaviour of certain councillors represented a threat to the governance of this town.

The difference between the two councils is simple and comes down to just one word - respect. Our current elected members have respect for each other and whilst they may not always agree, they accept that it is perfectly acceptable to have a differing view from their fellow members and are not ridiculed for doing so.

A direct result of the more friendly and responsible attitude in the Guildhall - better relationships with the town and other authorities - has also been recognised by the town clerk.

Festive celebration for B Sharp

B Sharp, the music charity based in Lyme Regis, is holding its annual party on Saturday at the Marine Theatre after the annual parade and turning on of the Christmas lights.

It's a celebration of workshops, projects, festivals and events, undertaken with young people during their Hub Jam and Boombox sessions throughout the year. The party also features live music from disco/funk covers outfit Mr Jean and special guests.

"This is a chance for everyone to get together and celebrate our achievements during a fun, relaxed evening with some great live music," says Fran Williams, B Sharp's CEO.

B Sharp's programme is open to all young musicians. The weekly programme includes Hub Jams on Tuesday evenings (6.15-8.30pm) for ages 11 (year 7) to 19 and Boombox, a new afterschool project on Thursdays (4.00-5.15pm), for younger musicians ages 9-11 (years 4-7). The two regular programmes are based at The Hub, Lyme Regis, where mixed aged, interest and ability groups compose original material for various performances and events throughout the year. The sessions are led by an experienced team of music leaders, mentors, trainees and support workers, offering pathways to further music, education and employment opportunities.

"Whether young people want to become better musicians or embark on a pathway that can lead to a career, there is a definite progression to be made here. The Hub sessions are at the core of our wider music and leadership programme," adds Fran.

Tickets for the party are available in advance from Lyme Regis TIC on 01297 442138. Everybody is welcome. Get in touch with franwilliams@bsharp.uk.com or go to www.bsharp.uk.com if you would like to find out more about the programme or get involved.

Charmouth Pharmacy

NEW exiting news at Charmouth Pharmacy

Guang, his wife Li and their little boy Ethan moved to the seaside from Bristol earlier this year to pursue the dream of owning their own business. Guang has worked as a pharmacist for the last 15 years in a diverse range of environment including community, hospital and dedicated care home services in the Bristol area.

It's been a steep learning curve for Guang and his team to adapt to new and exciting ways of working, but they have found their feet and the business is growing from strength to strength. This year the pharmacy is offering both NHS and private flu vaccination for the first time in the pharmacy's history and has proved to be invaluable to the local community. Their mission, to ensure patient care exceeds expectations and wanting to bring in new services to help the local community.

The Pharmacy not only dispenses prescriptions, medicines and vitamins, they also offer a dry-cleaning service and its shelves are bursting with men and ladies perfumes, face, hair and bath products, deodorants and men's shaving and toiletries. The store also has a great selection of rimmel make-up, women's scarves, hair accessories, false eye-lashes, nail varnishes, necklaces and earrings, along with all your other pampering lotions and potions.

So pop in to Charmouth Pharmacy and see what they have to offer. The Charmouth Christmas event is held on Friday, November 27th and the pharmacy will be opening late until 7pm.

Free screening of powerful documentary 'Gaswork'

LOCAL eco-group Turn Lyme Green and Lyme Regis-based Magic Oxygen Publishing are inviting all to a free screening of a powerful documentary called "Gaswork", by independent filmmaker Josh Fox.

In 2012, Josh met the Bevins family at an anti-fracking rally in Philadelphia. They were holding signs that said "A life lost in the rush to drill."

Based on the real-life story behind the placard, "Gaswork" follows Charlotte Bevins as she fights for CJ's Law, a bill to protect workers named after her brother CJ Bevins, who died on an unsafe drilling site.

In the film, Josh investigates worker safety and chemical risk, interviewing many workers who have been asked to clean drill sites, transport radioactive and carcinogenic chemicals, steam clean the inside of condensate tanks which contain harmful volatile organic compounds, polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons and other chemicals and have been told to do so with no safety equipment.

"Gaswork" follows Josh's previous film, the Acadmey Award-nominated "Gasland", which focused on communities in the United States affected by natural gas drilling and, specifically, a method of horizontal drilling into shale formations known as hydraulic fracturing. The film has reshaped public discourse and contributed to anti-fracking mobilizations.

The free screening of "Gaswork" will be held at the Woodmead Halls in Lyme Regis on Saturday, December 5th. Doors will be open from 7pm and the film will begin at 7.30pm.

Tracey West from Magic Oxygen Publishing said: "We hope to engage some vibrant discussion on the topics the film raises, including an attempt to discredit the film, whilst we serve organic and FairTrade tea, coffee and refreshments after the screening."

Watch the trailer for "Gaswork" by visiting moxp.uk/gaswork or, for further information, contact Tracey West by emailing tracey@magicoxygen.co.uk

Council to finally sign skatepark lease

COUNCILLORS are expected to finally sign off on Lyme Regis' long-awaited skatepark at a special meeting tonight (Wednesday).

An extraordinary full council meeting has been called so members can give final approval to West Dorset District Council's lease, allowing them use of a section of Charmouth Road car park for the skatepark for a cost of £2,000 a year.

After decades of discussion and attempts to find a suitable site for the facility, planning permission was received for the £200,000 town council-funded skatepark last year, and many had hoped it would already be in place. But the process was delayed as the two authorities came to an agreement on the lease and final planning conditions were met.

Councillors are expected to approve the signing and sealing of the lease at tonight's meeting so that contractors can start work on the skatepark, designed by Wheelscape, immediately.

They are also expected to authorise the town clerk to sign an undertaking that the council will resolve the one remaining issue relating to pedestrian access to the site from Charmouth Road car park, which will require a minor amendment to the plans.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Lose your baby weight with B! Health & Fitness

SITTING behind a desk at Dorset County Council while pregnant, more than eating for two and struggling to get rid of post-baby weight, Laura Doel from Lyme Regis has since been on a mission to slim down.

"I piled on the pounds when I was pregnant and, like a lot of new mums, I ended up bigger than I was before Jack was born. I became really fed up with not being able to get into my clothes so decided I had to take some action," said Laura.

"When Jack was 10 months old, luckily for me, a new health club, B! Health and Fitness, opened close to where I live in Lyme Regis. I went along with a plea for help to get rid of my excess weight. At the time, I had a big holiday coming up and my main goal then was to get into a bikini."

With help, Laura has lost two stone since February and is still going strong.

"I thought I would join a gym, get bored and leave. But because I joined a small, private health club I was looked after and kept motivated."

"So I've decided to share my top tips for getting back into shape after having a baby to help others who may be in the same boat. I used to survive on sugar, caffeine and processed food which made me really tired. Now I have a very clean diet and feel fit and healthy."

Laura's top five tips are:

- 1) Get your diet right - completely overhaul what you eat
- 2) Join a gym - don't be afraid to lift weights, it's easier than using a running machine!
- 3) Be patient - give yourself long enough for your new regime to work
- 4) Don't feel intimidated - you will soon gain confidence
- 5) Use your gym sessions as that special hour away from baby/toddler land and your chance to get back into the adult world

Craig Bernhardt, founder of private health club B! Health and Fitness in Lyme Regis, where Laura trains, said: "Laura is a great example of what can be achieved if you put your mind to it. It's not rocket science but equally you do need an objective. If you have nothing to aim for, you'll achieve nothing."

"So clearly define what your fitness goals are and then get professional help to devise your plan around exercise, diet and adequate rest. Make sure your plan makes sense to you and then own it. Be patient and make those important lifestyle changes. Just as Laura has done, you will soon look and feel so much better."

Christmas Shopping in Dorchester

With so many new shops to explore in town, Dorchester is rapidly becoming a favourite destination for shopping or a day out, especially for finding Christmas gifts for those 'tricky to buy for' people we all know! If you are flexible on your shopping time then we would recommend that you come in later morning or early afternoon as these are the times when you will normally be able to park with ease. A lot of shops are open later at Christmas especially on Thursdays which can give you that 'VIP' shopping experience when the crowds have subsided a little and you can go about your business with ease.

Dorchester Hearing Centre

How's your hearing

CURRENTLY one in six people in the UK – an estimated 10 million people – have some form of hearing loss. Local Specialists, The Dorchester Hearing Centre have been raising awareness and understanding of the issues surrounding hearing for over 50 years now.

Jonathan Ormerod, hearing aid audiologist, and his team at the Centre are proud to be promoting this important healthcare issue. 'Most people will go and see a dentist or an optician, but don't think about their hearing in the same way. We are encouraging people to come and have a free hearing test.'

He continues, 'Often people think if they had a hearing impairment they would know. However, hearing loss happens gradually and the signs are subtle. Our ability to adapt to those small changes makes it difficult to accurately self-diagnose and other people may notice it first. It is easy to blame others for not speaking clearly or mumbling. But undiagnosed hearing loss can cause frustration and withdrawal, often placing an undue strain on relationships.'

'Patients are often surprised when I show them hearing aids. They remember their granny wearing a 'large beige banana' behind her ear. Advances in technology have made hearing aids remarkably discreet. There are even hearing aids now that you can control with your mobile phone.'

If you think your hearing is not what it once was or you know someone who does not hear so well, the Dorchester Hearing Centre are offering free initial consultations and hearing tests. Call them on 01305 260153 to book your priority appointment.

Views on migrants are 'dismaying'

■ IT'S been dismaying to hear politicians and media commentators speaking with such ignorance about the migrant situation at Calais.

Most of those currently stranded at the French port have had to abandon their homes in countries where violence and persecution have become unbearable for them: Syria, Iraq, Sudan, Eritrea and Afghanistan.

The 3,000 people at Calais are a minuscule fraction of the world's 20 million refugees, the majority of whom are in places like Turkey, Lebanon and Ethiopia. Those countries are struggling to accommodate the displaced people imposed on them.

Europe has taken in very few of the world's refugees. Some EU countries - especially Germany and Sweden - have provided shelter for significant numbers, but the UK is lagging far behind.

It is unhelpful that countries like France and the UK propose ever-higher security fences. Calais, along with the crisis in the Mediterranean, needs to be tackled as part of a comprehensive EU-wide refugee approach, including managed resettlements.

We're now hearing voices raised in anger because of the attacks in Paris. But let us heed the recent words of President Obama: "It is very important that we do not close our hearts and start equating the issue of refugees with terrorism."

Europe of all places should understand the horrors of war, persecution and forced displacement. We should lead the way in responding to the plight of these desperate people.

Tilly Lavenás,
Chairman, Amnesty International
UK Lyme Regis group

Final flourish for Public First petition

■ IF anyone with strong feelings on the need to replace Cabinet governance at West Dorset District Council (whereby an overall minority of votes cast at the local elections has nevertheless led to a one-party Cabinet of just seven people), has not yet signed, now is the last chance up to and including Tuesday, December 1st to sign Public First's Petition for change.

We still wish to extend the buffer of signatures, to make absolutely certain that the 6,000 and increasing signatures will achieve the sought-after validation and a referendum next May.

Those wishing to can still go to sign at Trinity Stores, 41 Trinity Street, Dorchester (opposite Argos); or in Bridport to Leakers Bakery, 29 East Street; W. Frost at 34 West Street; or Batters Jewellers at 26 South Street (opposite the museum.) Signings can not be done online but an email to publicfirstgroup@gmail.com will secure a form by return, and if a phone number is emailed too we can agree forwarding/collection possibilities, or people can call 07552-430314.

We understand the petition result will be announced before Christmas. Let's complete the campaign with a flourish! And thanks to all.

John Grantham,
Petition organiser, Public First Group

The views expressed in letters are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper

An insight into cave exploring for art group

THIS week's Lyme Regis Art Society demonstration was given by Robin Gray, a very talented artist who is also a climber and a cave explorer, and sketches underground using a flexible sketch book lit by his head light.

His talk, "Cave Paintings", was not about ancient art but about painting cave pictures using oil pastels. Using black pastel on textured Bockingford paper, the toothed surface immediately gave the impression of rock as he sketched in a circle of boulders with stalagmites silhouetted against the space inside the cave and lit by the headlamps of some figures just visible behind the blocks.

Once he was satisfied with composition, Robin changed to absorbent black paper and grey pastel - absorbent paper being essential if the paint is to dry. He told members that there were only three makers of good pastels - Caran D'ache, Sennelier and a Japanese oil pastel called Guitart - and for this demo he used Caran D'ache on black paper.

Robin told members some painting pigments are actually found in the cave mud with iron oxide, creating ochres and siennas.

Having laid down the main pools of light, he used darker grey pastel for the shadows on the wall, mixing in patches of other colours which he outlined in black to give the impression of a rocky surface. His cavers were given blue suits with purple shadows and yellow gloves and more flashes of lights were worked into the walls whilst the tops of the boulders were covered in bright yellow algae.

Working the dark grey across the ceiling gave depth to the picture as did a series of small stalactites hanging down from the rim, and all the time Robin kept images actually experienced in the front of his mind. Layer after layer of white and black pastel created a velvety patchwork of brilliant light against coal-black shadows whilst Robin gave members fascinating insights into what the caving experience involves, finally finishing the picture with reflections across a still black pool.

The society meets on alternate Tuesdays in the Woodmead Halls from 2pm to 4pm. The next meeting will be the annual general meeting on December 1st with seasonal goodies and a talk by the popular Roger Clemens, entitled "Luggers, Low Tide and watching Fred Poggio".

Visitors and new members always welcome. For further information, contact Sheila Stratton on 01297 442956.

View from the churches

THE news doesn't make pleasant viewing at the moment. The attacks in Paris were a week ago now, and since then the French security services have carried out nearly 200 raids on other possible extremists.

And today the news is full of the attack by radicals most probably linked to al Qaeda, on the Radisson Blu in Bamako capital of Mali. The Germans are talking about a world terrorist war. It is all extremely unsettling. Where does it leave us? We can feel alone, vulnerable and hopeless in times of uncertainty like this.

For a vicar, one of the privileges of conducting Christian funerals is that we can offer hope to bereaved families, at a time when there appears to be no hope. There is a Bible reading which is commonly read at funerals. It comes from the book of Revelation. God promises that one day: "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain for the old order of things has passed away. He who was seated at the throne said "I am making everything new!" (Rev 21:4-5.)

This reading is immensely comforting for those who have recently been bereaved. It assures us that God is for us. He is not responsible for the painful situations we find ourselves in; indeed he walks with us as we go through them, bringing us the peace and assurance we need, offering us hope for our future however bleak things may look at this time.

Uplyme Christmas Fayre is on Saturday, November 28th 12noon to 3pm. EPIC inter-church event with live music, games craft, face painting and pizza for 7-11 year olds on Sunday, November 29th, 4.30pm to 6.30pm at Kilminster Baptist Church. Uplyme Carols by Candlelight, December 20th at 6pm, Uplyme Church. Bethany Chapel has two special events on Saturday, November 28th, to which all are welcome, and neither has an admission charge - at 10.30am the mayor will open a Christmas charity coffee morning and at 7pm there will be a screening of "God's Not Dead", followed by free hot dogs and tea or coffee.

Children in Need benefitting West Dorset parenting charity

SUPPORTERS of Children in Need will be thrilled to hear about a local project that is benefitting from money raised by the BBC charity.

Home-Start West Dorset, which works across West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland, has received a generous grant to help it with its work.

The project supports families with young children by training volunteers who know about being a parent, to support other parents by visiting them in their own homes for a couple of hours each week.

All parents know that those early years before children go off to school are vital in a child's life and Home-Start believes that parents have a key role in creating a secure environment for their children to grow up in, and sometimes they need a bit of help.

Families may struggle for many reasons, including a child's disability, bereavement or because they face other daily challenges.

One issue that really impacts on families is mental health. Research shows that 39 per cent of mothers and 21 per cent of fathers experienced a depressive episode often within the first year after birth.

Children in Need has been a long-time supporter of Home-Start West Dorset and recently funded a new post to allow them to focus their work specifically on helping families who face mental health problems.

Caroline Scott, chairman of Home-Start West Dorset said: "We are looking for an additional organiser with a special interest in mental health to assist with the development of our scheme. The post is 30 hours and the new member of staff will help recruit, train and supervise a team of home visiting volunteers."

"We are already finding that many families who need our help do suffer from some mental health problems and we are delighted that Children in Need recognise the difference that our work makes to families, particularly the children"

Any families who are struggling to cope for whatever reason can refer themselves to Home-Start West Dorset by phoning 01305 265072 or emailing office@homestartwestdorset.co.uk.

Anyone interested in applying for the post can look it up on the Dorset for You website at <https://jobs.dorsetforyou.com>, or www.dorsetsetecho.co.uk/jobs (search 'Home-Start') or by visiting www.homestartwestdorset.co.uk

12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS AND MUCH MORE!

WITH less than two weeks to go, the Bridport Christmas Cheer committee are busy getting ready for the event on Wednesday 9th December. The town will be packed full of musical entertainment, late night shopping, fairground, food and craft stalls and of course....reindeer! This year we are excited to launch three new competitions. Twelve Days of Christmas runs from 1st to 9th December. Town centre shops will be displaying a picture depicting one of the twelve days of Christmas; all you have to do is correctly name all twelve shops to be in with a chance of winning book vouchers.

Town Centre businesses are also being encouraged to take part in our Window Competition. The theme is Christmas Reindeer and judging will take place during 5th and 9th December. The Best Window display will be awarded the Christmas Cheer Trophy with certificates for runners up.

We are also pleased to launch our Mince Pies competition very kindly sponsored by Liberty Kitchens on Dreadnought Trading Estate. Our judges, Ross and Claire of Sausage & Pear will be judging the competition and bakers of the best mince pies will receive prizes including a £50 voucher from Frampton's Butchers. More information about all of the competitions and entry forms are available to collect from Bridport Tourist Information Centre, AG Down in South Street or from our website www.bridportchristmascheer.co.uk. BABYGEAR

How safe is your child's car seat?

Join us for a free safety check Tuesday December 1st-Sat. 5th 2-5pm
 Babygear Car Park, Gundry Lane Bridport DT6 3RL

BABYGEAR recently carried out a survey on the safety of children's car seats. We found all car seats we checked to be suitable for the car they were in, but over 80% were either too loose or parents had not adjusted the harness properly to accommodate the growth of the child. This was rectified immediately at no cost to parents. Each year over 200 children are seriously injured in their car seats. New regulations introduced last year aim to improve the safety of car seats. These will come into effect over the next few years and include recommendations that babies stay in a rearward facing car seat until they are 15 months.

Surveys (including those done by the AA and car seat manufacturer Britax) show that over 60-80% of car seats tested in cars are unsafe. They can be wrong for the car, wrong for the child, or incorrectly fitted and this is more common with those purchased on line. With Christmas approaching and icy roads imminent, Babygear are offering a free check every afternoon during the first week of December from 2-5pm.

We are happy to check any car seat from birth to 12 years. There will be no charge and the check should take approx. 10 minutes. Babygear have a wide selection of car seats and accessories in stock.

For directions to Babygear and to see our latest offers on car seats visit babygear bridport facebook page, or phone 01308 422552.

BRIDPORT ARTS CENTRE

BRIDPORT ARTS CENTRE has a huge array of events on this December to brighten the dark evenings. Kicking off with a live screening from New York's world famous MET, the opera LULU will be screened on Wednesday 2 December. Francisco Goya, Spain's most celebrated artist who to many is the father of modern art, is the subject for the latest installment of the 'Exhibition On Screen' series. Be guided through his latest exhibition from the National Gallery, London.

For something more lighthearted, comedian and Radio 4 regular MITCH BENN will be performing his hilarious new show 'Don't Believe A Word' on 4 December. Described by The Times as 'Britain's leading musical satirist', he will have you laughing out loud. Plus for all music lovers, KILA are a must see. They are one of Ireland's most innovative and exciting bands and are playing live at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday 5th December.

To help you get in the festive spirit, the Christmas favourite NUTCRACKER is being screened direct from London's Royal Opera House on 16 December. Then keep the Christmas cheer going with CBBC's Christian Lee when he stars in HAPPY AND ELFIE for the younger visitors on Sunday 20 December. After the show there will be a special children's Christmas Party with Christian Lee demonstrating his walk and magic!

Throughout December, Greame Oxbly: The Kings of England is being exhibited in the Allsop Gallery. The man known as "The King" is proving immortal. In this exhibition Oxbly shares with us impersonators of Elvis including a 14 year old Roma Gypsy, a 40 year old Italian civil servant and a German Elvis with his own UK fan club.

Alongside all these great events will be the regular programme of films, classical concerts and jazz. For full details of all events visit www.bridport-arts.com

BRIDPORT POST OFFICE

Letters to Santa

HO HO HO... Paul at Bridport Post Office has received a message from Father Christmas and as a thank you to all our customers he has decided to pay the postage for the first 50 letters he receives in his Santa's Post Box. So come along in to Bridport PO and get those letters sent.

Dear boys and girls

Christmas is a very exciting but busy time for me: the elves are making toys, the reindeer are practising their sleigh runs, and I'm busy preparing my list of who's been good this year.

I need to let the elves know what to make so to help me out, please let me know what you would like as early as possible.

I will be getting my sleigh ready for the long journey on Christmas Eve and inbetween I will try to reply to as many of you as possible. To make sure I receive your letters, please could you send them to:

Santa/Father Christmas, Santa's Grotto, Reindeerland, XM4 5HQ

It's really important you write the address carefully on a stamped envelope, and that you include your full name and address so I can write back to you.

Please send your letters to me by Sunday 6th December so I have time to reply.

Looking forward to delivering your presents on Christmas Eve. Make sure you remember my mince pie and Rudolph's carrot!

Merry Christmas to you all!

Father Christmas

And he's returning to Bridport Electric Palace on Friday, November 27th by popular request.

Starting out as a blues-obsessed teenage gunslinger in Bedfordshire, Ben fuses the influences of Eric Clapton, SRV, Jeff Healey and Jimi Hendrix into his signature style.

A ROCK'N'ROLL CHRISTMAS PARTY

CELEBRATE the coming of Christmas with A Rock'N' Roll Xmas Party at Bridport Electric Palace on Saturday, November 28th with Earl Jackson and Stompin' Dave's Band plus DJ Greg's Greats 78s.

Dance till 1am to the music of Chuck Berry, Little Richard, Jerry Lee Lewis, Elvis Presley, and other classic 1950s Rock 'n' Roll.

Based in Nottingham, Earl Jackson is a well-known figure on the British Rock 'n' Roll circuit and has been in great demand for many years. He has made appearances on BBC radio and TV including the Jonathon Ross Show. Earl is currently appearing across Europe as Chuck Berry in the popular theatre show Rockin' On Heaven's Door.

Born of Jamaican parents in Lambeth in 1964, Earl was heavily influenced by gospel music. Much of his charisma and on-stage confidence comes from performing before ten thousand people or more at various gospel events. Earl's voice coupled with his outstanding guitar playing bring to life pounding rhythms of rock 'n' roll.

Bridport based Stompin' Dave Allen has been performing regularly with Earl on keyboard and guitar the past few years. Dave has been described as 'a master of all kinds of American roots music... a formidable musician and a true original' by The Daily Telegraph. Since teaming up with Earl, the two are proving to be a magic combination and have given barnstorming performances at rock 'n' roll clubs, and festivals across England and on the continent.

Dave's band includes the vastly experienced Graham V. Bundy on drums. Graham, a professional drummer in the USA for 20 years, worked regularly with rockabilly luminaries such as Rockabilly Hall Of Fame members Dale Hawkins author of swamp-rock classic Susie Q, and Billy Lee Riley. Graham has also performed with Chuck Berry, and performed at The Grand Ole Opry. Also appearing is Jules Bushell on bass from The Thunderbridge Bluegrass Boys.

Greg's Greats 78s also known as DJ Greg Butler is doo-lally about 78rpm records from bygone times. He is the main man of The Shellac Collective who play music from bygone times at events, festivals, and radio stations across the UK. Greg hosts tents at Bestival and Camp Bestival and has become a perennial favourite. Guest DJs in the past have included Mark Lamarr, Count Sizzle, Natty Bo, and Lewis from Kitty Daisy and Lewis. This chap only has to rummage through his 140,000 strong collection of 78s to give any DJ whippersnapper a taste of the original good stuff. The late, great Radio 1 DJ John Peel visited Greg's collection and was regularly supplied 78s by Greg for John to play on his show in the Pig's Big 78 spot.

A Rock'N'Roll Christmas Party is guaranteed to get you in the Christmas spirit in true 1950s style. So get your tickets now and bring your dancing shoes.

Gypsy Swing with Moscow Drug Club

MOSCOW DRUG CLUB is a curious place, where elements of 1930s Berlin Cabaret, Hot Club de France, Nuevo tango and Gypsy Campfire meet, have a few drinks and stagger arm in arm into the darkness of some cobbled street in eastern Europe, on a mission to find the bar where Django Reinhardt and Tom Waits are having an after hours jam with the local Tziganes...

Moscow Drug Club formed in Bristol, when North American chanteuse Katya Gorrie and International guitar virtuoso Denny Ilett met a Django guitarist named Dave Archer. Finding that they each had a passion for the swing music of the 30s and 40s, and the Parisian songwriters of the 50s, an idea began to form in their minds. Teaming up with classical violinist John Pearce and double bassist Andy Crowdy, the five-piece was complete.

Combining original material with songs by the likes of Jacques Brel, Leonard Cohen, Tom Waits, Bertolt Brecht and Duke Ellington, Moscow Drug Club have wowed crowds across the UK with their intoxicating and infectious sound. With previous performances at venues and festivals including Womad, Larmer Tree, Marlborough Jazz festival and the Royal Albert Hall, the group are set to make their Artsreach debut this winter, following high demand.

Moscow Drug Club play at Comrades Hall, Broadwindsor on Friday, December 11th at 7.30pm (for tickets or more details call 01308 867644); Sturminster Marshall Memorial Hall on Saturday, December 12th at 7.30pm (01258 857447); and Portesham Village Hall on Sunday, December 13th at 7.30pm (01305 871925).

Jane Austen's most perfect novel, Emma, comes to life with Hotbuckle's adaptation

THIS SHROPSHIRE-BASED theatre company will bring their new adaptation of Austen's classic novel of romance, humour and interference; Emma to Dorchester Arts on Sunday, November 29th at 3pm.

Emma Woodhouse is handsome, clever and rich, with a comfortable home and happy disposition. She's also a bit of a meddler. After her governess is married to the kindly Mr Weston (at Emma's instigation of course), Miss Woodhouse's path in life is clear. She must become a match-maker...

But as her interfering gets out of hand, it may be time for Emma to question her judgement. Advised by friend Mr Knightley, can Emma untangle the web she's spun? And what does she truly know of her own heart...?

Since forming in 2007 Hotbuckle Theatre Company has become best known for their slick and ingenious adaptations of classic works of literature, and has staged various adaptations of classic novels telling the tale with humour and emotion. Previous productions include Austen's Persuasion, David Copperfield, Great Expectation and Les Misérables.

And in true Austen style there will be tea and cake available before the production and during the interval at the Dorchester Corn Exchange bar.

Jane Austen's Emma, Sunday, November 29th, 3pm Dorchester Corn Exchange. Doors and refreshments available from 2:30pm.

Dorchester Arts' autumn season of drama is proudly supported by Battens solicitors.

To book tickets call Dorchester Arts box office on 01305 266926 or visit the website www.dorchesterarts.org.uk.

Festive fun with Holly At Christmas

BUDDY HOLLY AND THE CRICKETERS once again herald in the Yuletide festivities with Holly at Christmas, the show that is now as traditional as mulled wine and mince pies!

This breathtaking show has rock 'n' rolled audiences across the globe from Cardiff to California, Barking to Bangkok and Swindon to Sweden and is guaranteed to have everyone singing along to the music and dancing in the aisles.

It stars some of the finest actor-musicians in the UK whose combined West End credits include Buddy, Lennon, Forbidden Planet and Jailhouse Rock and was endorsed as Britain's most popular Buddy Holly act when the boys guested on BBC One's Saturday night live programme, "The One and Only", hosted by Graham Norton.

Towards the end of November, the clocks go back - in more ways than one - and Buddy Holly and the Cricketers once again herald in the Yuletide festivities with Holly at Christmas, the show that is now as traditional as mulled wine and mince pies!

Turning Light into Gold Christmas music from Cantamus

Cantamus

THIS YEAR'S Christmas programme from West Dorset choir Cantamus is called 'Light into Gold', and they will be performing it at three concerts across the area in December.

The programme is named after the piece that concludes the concert - the ethereal, haunting 'Lux Aurumque' by the modern US composer Eric Whitacre. Before hearing that, however, audiences will be treated to a wide variety of songs from the last 500 years, including the anonymous 15th-century 'Nova Nova', for men's voices, Charpentier's lovely 'Salve puerule' and two pieces from the Christmas Oratorio by JS Bach. Twentieth-century offerings will include the 'Fantasia on Christmas Carols' by Vaughan Williams, 'There is a flower' by John Rutter, Arvo Pärt's 'Bogoroditse Dyevo', and three carols by Peter Warlock.

Cantamus was formed in 2012 and gives three series of concerts each year across the area under the musical direction of Malcolm Knowles.

The three venues are: The Church of Our Lady, Queen of Martyrs, and St Ignatius, North Chideock, Thursday, December 3rd at 7pm; St Mary Magdalene, Loders, Saturday, December 5th at 6.30pm; St Mary's Church, Netherbury, Saturday, December 12th at 7pm. Tickets will be available on the door, price £8 (Chideock and Loders) and £10 (Netherbury) - these prices include interval refreshments.

The choir will also be performing at a charity carol concert at St Mary's Church, Edward Road, Dorchester, on Thursday, December 10th at 7pm (refreshments from 6pm). This event is in aid of the Footprints Project.

For more details please see the choir's website at www.cantamus-dorset.org

If the River was Whiskey

A tour by folk band Holy Moly and the Crackers

FANS of folk music are in for a foot-tapping treat when nationally acclaimed band 'Holy Moly And the Crackers' arrive in Dorset to tour their latest show 'If The River Was Whiskey' with Artsreach next month.

The band, a seven-piece 'gypsy folkroll' group from Newcastle, are making an impact on both the local and national live music scene, having played over 200 shows throughout the UK and appearing at numerous festivals over the summer. Influenced by an eclectic range of styles including punk, ska, reggae, folk and blues, tracks from their 2012 debut album and subsequent EP have been played by many including BBC Introducing and leading music critic Mike Harding.

Their latest show 'If the River was Whiskey' is the perfect collision of lively tunes, dancing, storytelling and drinking. It weaves the tale of Willie O'Connell and a love affair with whiskey which leads him away from home and into the path of malt soaked Scots, wild women and old American moonshiners. Part gig, part story, this medley of original songs and old time drinking tunes is best enjoyed with a wee dram in hand - expect a thrilling and hilarious evening of lively music and tall tales!

Holy Moly and the Crackers perform at Melbury Osmond Village Hall on Wednesday, November 25th at 7.30pm (for more details call 01935 83459); Frampton Village Hall on Friday, November 27th at 7.30pm (07968 586906); and St Nicholas School, Child Okeford on Sunday, November 29th at 7.30pm (01258 861391).

Bridport Chamber Orchestra to perform Autumn Concert

THE Bridport Chamber Orchestra performs a the Autumn Concert on Sunday, November 29th at St Swithun's Church in Bridport.

Alex Ennis, who leads the BCO, the Axe Vale Orchestra and the Taunton Symphony Orchestra, will perform the glorious Bach A minor violin concerto.

The programme also includes the romantic Serenade by Elgar and the dramatic Holberg Suite by Grieg, a stately Andante Festivo by Sibelius and, as a complete contrast, Alma Llanera, full of toe-tapping Latin American rhythm. This piece is often called the second national anthem of Venezuela and pays homage to the folk music of the wide open plains of the Llanos. Go to any party or fiesta in Venezuela and you will hear the Alma Llanera; countless versions of it exist. It will certainly leave you dancing out of the concert!

The concert is at 3pm and will be followed by the usual delicious tea and home-made cakes. Tickets at £10 (free entry to students) are available in advance from The Bridport Music Centre and on the door.

The Teddy Bear Museum's Great Reindeer Hunt

THERE may be a problem this Christmas - some of Santa's Reindeer are missing!

The Teddy Bear Museum in Dorchester, which is Britain's only museum devoted entirely to teddy bears has been delightfully decorated for a vintage Christmas celebration, complete with a special Christmas story to guide visitors around the house. But, the teddy bears at the Museum are worried.

The bears know a thing or two about Santa and are very friendly with his reindeer. They have heard that Santa has lost some of his reindeer and without them his huge task of delivering presents to all those very good children might be delayed!

Santa desperately needs help and the bears at the Teddy Bear Museum have hatched a cunning plan. The human size bears that live at the Museum have organized a reindeer hunt. They hope that lots of boys and girls and also grown up ones, will come to the Museum and help in the Great Reindeer Hunt that is taking place in the Museum from now until December 20th and then from December 27 to January 4th. For all those who help the bears and Santa search for his reindeer there will be a delightful Christmas Bear present for everyone who finds one.

Jackie Ridley, the Museum's curator says the Museum is a wonderful place at Christmas. "The Museum recreates bygone Christmas' and is really charming and unique", she said, "both children and adults love it".

The Teddy Bear Museum also has an amazing traditional teddy bear shop, stocked with delightful bears to suit everyone this Christmas from unusual stocking fillers to bears for babies, bears for cuddling, gorgeous collectable Steiff bears and unique hand made designer bears. The Teddy Bear Shop can be visited without joining the hunt.

The Teddy Bear Museum is in the heart of Dorchester, Dorset's historic county town and only a few minutes walk from the main car parks.

Blast from the Past return with a festive romp through the ages...

FROM THE company that brought the charming Medieval Christmas to Dorchester last year acclaimed historical musicians Blast from the Past return to Dorchester Arts at the Corn Exchange on Saturday, December 5th, with a festive romp through 600 years of Christmas music, songs and stories.

Beginning in the Middle Ages and ending in the 20th century, A Brief History of Christmas is a whistle-stop tour of the origins of our midwinter festivities.

Featuring long-forgotten songs and tales as well as some familiar and well-loved carols, A Brief History of Christmas is a show guaranteed to delight the hearts of young and old.

The first half takes in 600 years of music - featuring music and songs played on archaic instruments such as cittern, shawm and rauschpfeife, as well as more familiar instruments such as guitar, flute, oboe and accordion, and all helped along by Blast from the Past's trademark wit and humour.

The second half is a thrilling retelling of Dickens' 'A Christmas Carol' - using song, drama and music to bring this classic story to life in a riot of sound and colour.

A Brief History of Christmas is the perfect show for anyone looking to recapture the simple Yuletide delights of fellowship, laughter and good cheer.

For more information and booking visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call

Dorchester Arts box office on 01308 4266926.

Songs of the sea

ACCLAIMED as the finest purveyors of sea songs and sea shanties in the world, The Kimber's Men are stars of Channel 4's Sunday Brunch, and they will be singing up a storm on The Marine Theatre Stage on Saturday 16th December.

Nothing beats the resonance of hearing a hearty group of male singers of this quality live. The group now comprise Joe Stead (Ship's Doctor), John Bromley (Ship's Cook), Neil Kimber (Bosun), Gareth Scott (Powder Monkey) and Michael Beeke (Stowaway). Michael plays the Northumbrian Pipes and has added a completely new dimension to the sound since joining the band three years ago.

Comedy, unusual for shanty singers, make up a good part of the show. So be prepared to laugh.

In John Bromley Kimber's Men boast the finest bass singer on the British folk scene today. Indeed it is likely you will get a rendition of 'Old Man River' at some point during the concert. The founder member, Joe Stead who is almost a legend in his own right actually met and sang with Paul Robeson and was a friend of Pete Seeger the legendary American singer who died recently. Pete wrote such classics as 'Where have all the flowers gone' and 'If I had a hammer'. Joe has performed twice in concert in America with Pete, both in New York and for the Delaware River Valley Project in New Jersey when Neil Kimber accompanied him.

Kimber's Men play on Saturday, December 19th, 7.30pm at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Tickets are £14.50, or concessions £12.50, a TheatreFriends discount is available, and LYT members can come for £1! / All Ages/ Running time: 90 minutes plus interval.

To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit the website at www.marinetheatre.com

Consone Quartet West Dorset concerts

BENEATH the fresh young faces of the four dynamic members of the Consone Quartet - Agata Daraskaite and Magdalena Loth-Hill (violins), Louisa Tatlow (viola) and George Ross (cello) - lies a depth of passion and dedication to classical and early romantic music that is breathtaking. Already their hard work is reaping its rewards, as in a remarkably short space of time they have achieved an impressive level of recognition. Concerts in the West audiences will be able to see the quartet's professionalism and energy in action for themselves at venues in Devon, Dorset and Somerset, from December 3rd-5th.

The Consone Quartet's talent has already been spotted, as in July 2015, at the annual York Early Music International Young Artists Competition at the National Centre for Early Music, these outstanding young musicians were awarded The EUBO Development Trust Prize. Their entry in the competition also netted them another worthwhile prize - a place on the Eemerging European Ensembles programme, led by the Centre cultural de recantr d'Ambronay, which is designed to support young ensembles and to allow them the time to learn the important skills of ensemble playing. In 2013 the Consone Quartet was awarded the Century Fund Prize in the RCM Historical Performance Competition.

The Consone Quartet play a Coffee Concert at Bridport Arts Centre from 11am-12noon on Friday, December 4th. Tickets are £10 or £8 (concessions), coffee included. Purchase tickets from www.bridport-arts.com or call 01308 424204.

The Quartet then play at The Hub, Lyme Regis on Saturday, December 5th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £15 from Serendip (11 Broad Street 01297 442594).

Don't Believe a Word

Leading musical satirist Mitch Benn comes to Bridport

"I'M A SCEPTIC. But don't take my word for it. Or indeed anybody's. For anything..." and this is the basic premise of Mitch's new critically acclaimed show. It's a show that will make you laugh a lot and think a bit as well as Mitch debunks myths, exposes nonsense and grapples with the very nature of knowledge itself extolling the virtues of an evidence-based approach to life .... with amusing consequences and of course a few songs along the way.

The 'Now Show' aside, following on from the success of 'Mitch Benn Is The 37th Beatle' last year, a further three specials on music icons Bob Dylan, David Bowie and Elvis have recently been broadcast on BBC Radio 4 - 'The Freewheelin' Mitch Benn', 'Mitch Benn Is The Fat Pink Duke' and 'Mitch Benn Has Left The Building'. Last year he also co-presented with Harry Shearer BBC Radio 2's 'Anatomy Of A Guitar' and presented 'Spank The Plank' for BBC Radio 4.

Mitch is the author of two novels, 'Terra' and 'Terra's World' both published by Gollancz and co-author with Jon Holmes of 'The Twitter History Of The World' the paperback edition of which was published by Pion Books in September 2015.

Mitch Benn brings 'Don't Believe a Word' to Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, December 4th at 8pm.

Tickets are £13, or £11 concessions, available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

Reablement Support Workers

£8.05-£9.00 per hour + benefits

Permanent, various hours | Across Devon

Six weeks. Doesn't sound like a long time, does it? But that's how long our Reablement Support Workers spend with vulnerable people who've suffered an accident or illness to help them rebuild their confidence, re-learn key skills and regain their independence. It's a really important job and one that makes a huge difference to people who need it most.

Now, you don't need any specific experience or qualifications to be a Reablement Support Worker. You need patience, understanding and a real passion for helping people get back to their best. You need a willingness to learn too. You'll have a full induction, comprehensive training, including time shadowing someone who's already doing the job, and ongoing support.

To apply online, visit www.devonjobs.gov.uk quoting reference ASC40. If you have no internet access then contact the First Stop Desk on 01392 383000 (8.30am-5pm, Monday-Friday).

Closing date: 6 December 2015.

Interview date: w/c 14 December 2015.

2016 SsangYong Turismo now available

OFFERING family and business users a car to transport seven adults in comfort together with their luggage, the SsangYong Turismo is almost without rival.

At over 5 metres long and with a 3 metre wheelbase, the car is larger than a standard sized MPV people carrier, and is now further enhanced for 2016 with the addition of an upgraded 2.2 litre Euro 6 diesel engine. The Turismo also now offers the choice of a 6-speed manual transmission or new Mercedes-Benz 7-speed automatic.

Diesel power

The newly developed e-XDi220 diesel engine meets the demand for a more powerful performance and lower CO2 emissions at the same time. Maximum power is increased to 178ps and torque to 400Nm - up by 15% and 11% respectively over the previous Euro 5 diesel 2.0 litre engine. Maximum torque is delivered from a low of 1,400rpm and maintained through a wide range up to 2,800rpm for smooth, progressive driving from the start.

Big strides have also been made with CO2 emissions which have been reduced to 189g/km, down from 199g/km on the previous 4x2 manual transmission model, while fuel economy is also improved and now up to 39.2 mpg (Combined cycle) compared with 37.2mpg over the model it replaces.

"Sales of Turismo are already 46% up this year compared with the whole of 2014," says Paul Williams, CEO of SsangYong Motor UK, "which clearly demonstrates that even more people are recognising the amazing value this car offers. With the power upgrade and new 7-speed Mercedes-Benz gearbox for 2016, Turismo delivers even greater levels of refinement and value."

Interior space

Designed to appeal as family, leisure and business transportation, the new car blends multi-role flexibility with great ride comfort and the appointments and equipment levels of a luxury saloon.

Thanks to its 3,000mm wheelbase, the car provides a huge interior space where seven adults can travel in supreme comfort with their luggage loaded in the back, without having to compromise on passenger accommodation. There are three rows of seats as well as a large load space which can be further increased by removing the third row completely. This gives a massive load carrying capability of between 875 litres with seven adults seated, through to two adults and 3,146 litres of load space.

Turismo ELX with 4x4

While rear wheel drive features on the SE and EX, the top of the range ELX includes selectable 4x4 with low ratio as standard. This makes the Turismo ELX a car you can rely on, no matter what the winter throws at you, and is especially safe and practical whether towing a caravan, horsebox or boat trailer, or when driving on snow and ice. As with other Turismo models the ELX has an impressive 2 tonne towing capability.

Ride & handling

The new Turismo utilises double wishbone front suspension and rear independent multi-link suspension for executive saloon style ride quality. This set-up offers a quiet and comfortable driving environment with firm body control, a flat ride and optimum stability regardless of the road conditions.

The new 2016 Turismo 2.2 is now available through SsangYong dealers.

Six out of ten motorists support raising the driving age to 18, according to a new survey

SIX OUT of ten motorists back raising the driving age from 17 to 18 - to save lives on Britain's roads, according to new survey.

And 76% of drivers support the introduction of 12-month probationary licences for all teenagers who have passed their test.

A further 62% of people believe young drivers should have to display a green P - probationary - plate as a warning to other road users.

Less popular were night-time curfews for teenagers. Just 34% supported new measures preventing young drivers from driving between 10pm and 5am unless a passengers aged over 30 was in the car.

The results were revealed in a new survey of 1,000 motorists by the road safety company SmartWitness, which makes Britain's most popular dash-cams.

It found that 67% of motorists support tougher rules for drivers aged 17-19.

One popular measure - supported by 63% of drivers - was making the ages of 17-18 a learner year. Young people would be able to learn to drive under supervision but could not take their test till they were 18.

A year's probation for all drivers aged between 17 and 19 was supported by 64% of those polled.

Seven out of ten motorists (72%) support an immediate road ban for any teenager caught speeding.

Department for Transport statistics show that nearly one in eight (11.9%) of all road casualties are hurt or killed in collisions involving a car driver aged 17 to 19 - despite the fact that this age group makes up only 1.5 per cent of licensed drivers.

And a fifth of deaths on British roads involve drivers aged 17-24.

Around 20% of SmartWitness sales to private drivers are cameras for parents who want to monitor their teenage children's driving when they are not in the car.

SmartWitness chief executive Paul Singh said: "It is sad fact that young motorists drive around 5% of all the miles driven in Britain but are involved in about 20% of the crashes where someone is killed or seriously injured.

"It is clear there is overwhelming support for tougher laws governing young drivers."

"At SmartWitness we are committed to improving safety for young drivers and helping to give parents' peace of mind when their teenage children are behind the wheel.

"They can check on the footage when their children have been out in the car on their own to make sure they are driving responsibly."

Sales of SmartWitness cameras have shot by 30% in the last two years as more motorists use the technology to guard against cash-for-crash fraudsters and to improve their driving standards.

Most countries in Europe have a minimum driving age of 18 but the limit has been 17 in the UK since the driving test was introduced 80 years ago in 1935.

Statistics show that road accidents remain the biggest killer of young people in the UK, higher than both alcohol and drugs.

RESULTS - Saturday, November 21st

LYME REGIS RES 3 ELMORE RES 3
Devon & Exeter League Division Seven
A FLAT 20-minute period in the second-half ultimately cost Lyme Regis Reserves two points and jump back up to second place in the D&E Division seven table.

The Seasiders started well enough. Stefan Taylor, playing on the right flank, had a shot saved by Eagles' keeper Ryan Hancock in the second minute.

Taylor went close again when he got on the end of an Adam Caddy cross-shot. But he went one better in the 16th minute when a long free-kick from left-back Ally Rattenbury was flicked on by Caddy and Taylor lofted the ball over Hancock from all of 25 yards out.

The lead was doubled just before the half-hour when Alfie Jaques drilled home a low shot from just inside the area.

Elmore's first chance came a minute later when Lyme keeper Toby Fowler did well to beat out a fierce shot from Liam Vellacott.

Caddy went close to adding a third for Lyme in the 37th minute but screwed a shot wide after his initial effort had been blocked.

But the visitors grabbed a foothold in the match six minutes before the interval when two home defenders slipped allowing Dave Mariner to lash the ball home after Fowler had parried the first shot.

There was still time for one more chance for the hosts when Sam Bevis burst clean through but his first touch was too heavy and Hancock stepped in to clear.

The Seasiders should really have put the game to bed when they created four chances in a seven-minute spell in early in the second period.

First Fred Thomson struck the foot of the far post from the angle of the area, and then side footed wide when well placed after a good cross from Bevis.

The roles were reversed soon after when Thomson set up Bevis whose crisp drive was well saved at full stretch by Hancock.

The next chance fell to Mark Batey who headed narrowly wide from a corner.

Sure enough Elmore capitalised and were level in the 69th minute when skipper Ryan Rowe netted with an acrobatic hitch-kick at the near post from a corner.

Lyme then missed a golden chance to edge back in front when Hancock spilled the ball straight to Jaques but his low drive struck the prone keeper with the goal gaping.

◆ PEACH: Stefan Taylor scored the pick of Lyme Regis Reserves' goals in 3-3 draw with Elmore

Once again the Eagles swooped up the other end and Mariner struck again to put them ahead for the first time in the match.

And it could have been worse but for a superb save from Fowler. The Seasiders threw bodies forward in the last five minutes. Rattenbury's long cross caused some confusion and was hacked off the line.

But Lyme managed to salvage a point when Alex Rowe bundled the ball home following good work from substitute Lewis Middleton down the right flank.

Seasiders: T.Fowler, A.Clark, A.Rattenbury, M.Batey, W.Blackmore, A.Rowe (capt), A.Jaques, S.Taylor, S.Bevis (L.Middleton 59), A.Caddy, F.Thomson. Subs used: F.Thomson (C.Fowler 89), P.Peacock, C.Fowler. unused: R.Fowler.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
JOHN FOWLER CUP R2

CHARD RANGERS RES 3 NETHERBURY RES 7
NETHERBURY Reserves are through to the second round of the John Fowler cup after fighting back from 3-1 down at Jocelyn Park.

The Ambers started poorly and found themselves behind inside five minutes with some sloppy defending allowing a simple goal for Ben Butler.

This got Netherbury going and, kicking up the slope, they started to create chances and George Green had a header saved a point blank range.

Then, a superb tackle from Tyman James on the edge of his own area started the move that would lead to the equaliser, Alex Goodrick began what was to be a fine day in front of goal by racing clear and calmly equalising.

James then had a header cleared off the line from a corner as the visitors took control of the game. Goodrick had a further chance that squirmed under the keeper, but was cleared off the line once again.

Against the run of play Chard went ahead when Rich Foote hit a first time shot from 30 yards that curled away from keeper Mark Tozer and into the top corner.

In the second half Netherbury began to dominate proceedings, but were rocked back in the 55th minute when some poor defending allowed Jamie Best to bundle the ball home after a goalmouth scramble.

Netherbury were then camped in the home team's half for the rest of normal time.

Green had a super strike saved by the keeper, and his headed rebound hit the bar as it came back to him at a tight angle his volley hit the base of the post with the keeper stranded.

The home gloveman was maintaining the two-goal cushion with a series of great brilliant saves as the Ambers piled on the pressure.

But James provided his second assist when he crossed for Goodrick to turn the ball in at the near post to make 3-2.

Goodrick was denied again shortly after by the inform keeper. But when the resulting corner from Wesley Furszmann was cleared straight back to him, he smashed the ball into the roof of the net from a narrow angle for a deserved equaliser.

In extra time it was more of the same and Chard fell apart.

Goodrick scored two more; firstly passing neatly into the bottom corner to make it 4-3 and then bagging his fourth when his shot squeezed past the keeper and just crossed the line.

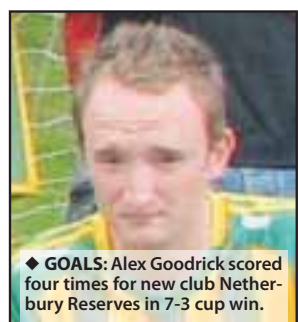

Substitute Charlie Morgan was fouled in the area and duly converted from the spot to make it 6-3.

Ryan Kingston added a lovely left footed curler from the edge of the area to wrap it up at 7-3.

Ambers' Manager James Sayers was pleased with his young team's performance, he said: "We made it difficult for ourselves today conceding two soft goals."

"But I was really pleased with the determination and character to get back into the game. The pitch was soft and the grass long, but we still played some great football.

"Liam Tuck, (16) was superb at centre back along with Steve Symonds. Luke Ward Jones (17) at left back and Tyman James (17) on the wing. But everyone played their part and Alex (Goodrick) deserved his goals as he works so hard for the team."

◆ GOALS: Alex Goodrick scored four times for new club Netherbury Reserves in 7-3 cup win.

CHARMOUTH 5 FARWAY UTD RES 1
A SUPERB first-half performance was more than enough to earn Charmouth a place in the last eight of the John Fowler Cup.

"We played some lovely one-touch football - the lads made it look easy," said Robins' manager Kevin Pratt.

A hat-trick from top-scorer Dan Rendell and one each from Ali Harvey and Brin Seward had the hosts well beyond the winning post at half-time.

The second period brought more of the same but the chances weren't converted and the Devonians snatched a consolation through player-manager Matt Hurford.

Pratt picked out right-winger Jake Reeve as his MoM.

PREMIER

CHARD UTD 4 BARRINGTON 8
BARRINGTON moved to the top of the Premier Division table after coming from behind in a 12-goal feast at Jocelyn Park.

Marco Quedas put the hosts ahead as they looked lively in the opening 20 minutes.

But the visitors then clicked into gear to lead 3-1 at half time with goals from Guy Dare, Andy Whitefield and Sam Spurway.

Former Luso-Chard striker Quedas went on to complete a fine hat-trick and Norbert Harasiemowicz chipped in with Chard's other goal but they were trumped by further Barrington strikes from Andy Whitefield (2), Tom Perry (2) and Dare.

FORTON RANGERS 2 NETHERBURY 4
NETHERBURY made it back-to-back wins on the road with a comfortable victory over Forton Rangers.

Despite playing up the slope and against the wind it was the Ambers who dominated the first half and were 3-0 up in side half an hour.

They took the lead in the 10th minute when Dan Rawlings played a smart through ball behind the Forton back line, which Ryan Gall ran onto and coolly beat the keeper with good finish.

The lead was doubled 10 minutes later with this time Tom Franklin, back from injury, playing a telling through ball to set Mark Cuff through on goal, the winger got the wrong side of his defender who him down for a clear penalty.

Franklin stepped up and confidently put the resulting spot-kick away.

The third goal came from a flowing team move. Frank Ives played in Cuff on the left, his first time ball across the box picked out Gall who managed to avoid the onrushing keeper and the ball fell to the feet of Jon-Paul Avery who made no mistake.

The Ambers were in control, but gave away a sloppy goal from a set piece scored by Eddie James.

The second half was closer, but Netherbury extended their lead when Cuff rounded off a smart performance with a goal of his own, out pacing his marker and finishing across the keeper for 4-1. The Ambers should of added to the score line, but chances for Gall, Cuff, Franklin and Lee Quincey were missed and the hosts bagged a late consolation when James netted his second.

Netherbury manager Andy Loudon was pleased to see his side win on what has been a bogey ground for the Ambers: "This has not normally been a great ground for us, but we played some great attacking football, dominated most of the game and should of scored a few more."

Loudon picked out Dan Rawlings as his Man of the Match.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 1 COMBE RES 1
BEN Pitman squandered the chance to move Shepton Beauchamp back to the top of the table when his put an 89th minute penalty wide of the target at Brimgrove Lane.

Shepton manager Aggie Smith felt his side were good value for a win, he said: "It was a frustrating game - we can't continue to give points away."

Aaron Sweet struck the post early on for Shepton who also felt they were denied a clear-cut penalty when Kris Hasting appeared to be felled in the box in the 10th minute but referee Martin Baldock disagreed.

The hosts took the lead before half-time courtesy of another scorcher from Jamie Spurdle.

But Ryan Scott levelled for the Saints in the 75th minute before the late spot-kick drama.

DIVISION ONE

PYMORE 2 HAWKCHURCH UTD 4
PYMORE manager Stuart Hedditch had no complaints after seeing his rusty side overturned but title contenders Hawkchurch United at St Mary's.

"We haven't played for a month and have a growing injury list, but take nothing away from Hawkchurch - the best team won on the day."

The Hawks were circling the home goal in a one-sided opening to the match. But it was Pymore who struck first when Adam Cody-Boucher found the top-corner from 25 yards.

And it got better for Hedditch's side when Rob Wayland made it 2-0 with a superb overhead kick from just inside the area.

Stung by the double set-back the visitors grabbed a lifeline on the stroke of half time through Jamie Harris.

Pymore were then punished for sluggish start to the second half and Hawks top-scorer Gavin Herrod squared things up with his 18th goal of the season.

They finally took the lead for the first time 15 minutes from time when Jack Larcombe netted from the penalty spot after a foul by Pymore keeper Charlie Youngs.

The result was sealed when Dan Richards cracked the ball home from 25-yards near the end.

WAYTOWN HOUNDS 1 MISTERTON 0
ANOTHER rainy week made for a heavy pitch at Netherbury once again, but both teams dealt very well with the conditions.

Misterton were forced into two early substitutions with what appeared to be hamstring injuries.

The Hounds, with the wind at their backs, had most of the play in first half but failed to force a clear-cut opening and the first half ended 0-0.

Waytown, now against the elements, weathered a spell of concerted pressure from the visitors.

But 10 minutes from time Jon Legg weaved past three defenders before exchanging passes with James Loveridge and then calmly rolling the ball into the net for what proved to be the all-important winner.

In the final two minutes there were goal mouth scrambles at both ends but the Hounds had their win.

Waytown manager Mark Hughes said: "I was very pleased with the way we played, Misterton have some very good experienced players and we dealt with that all over the pitch."

Sam Dowle and George Haskins were Hughes' pick of The Hounds' pack.

◆ MATCH WINNER: John Legg's first goal after returning from injury earned Waytown victory

Leaders made to fight all the way

Bridport 6
West Hants 2nd 14
by Roger Lewis
ALTHOUGH the score line suggests an easy victory for West Hants it was far from the case as a dogged and determined Bridport made the league leaders fight all the way for their win.

It is measure of how the team has progressed when they are able to match strong teams who have a vast array of good quality players to choose from.

Player-Coach Jason Martin, at one, was in fine form against Kirt Robertson, and it was simply one-way traffic as he completely outplayed a useful player winning 9-0, 9-0, 9-1.

Ollie Duquemin had a very hard game at two against Oli Smith. Both players started off by testing each other with a series of long rallies and trying to avoid making mistakes which led to some really exciting and interesting squash.

Smith's game plan was to try to manoeuvre Duquemin out of position and then execute the tight boast or drive up the side walls.

Duquemin covers the court extremely well and was able to counteract Smith's shots on many occasions as he took the match 9-1, 9-6, 9-7.

The number three match between Bridport's Dan Wentzel and Nick Hiscocks was a hard fought affair with both players trying to dominate the middle of the court.

Indeed it was nip and tuck throughout with long rallies and some hard hitting shots to all corners of the court, along with the odd boast and drop shot. As well as Wentzel played, it was Hiscocks who had the edge in a 9-6, 9-6, 10-8 victory.

Jess Brodie, drafted into the team at four, was up against a very good youngster in Tom Davey, and as well as Brodie played, it was Davey who had all the shots.

West Hants are renowned for bringing on good youngsters and this was no exception as Davey showed what a good prospect he is in taking a very good 9-2, 9-4, 9-5 victory.

Another of the visitors' youngsters Dan Ralley was up against Bridport's Steve Hodder.

It was another situation where the young West Hants player had all the shots in the book and consequently counter attacked most of Hodder's play.

Despite playing to the best of his ability Hodder could not come to terms with Ralley's game plan that led to his downfall and defeat by a 9-1, 9-6, 9-2 score line.

Relentless Blues rack up 11 tries in big win

BRIDPORT 72 NORTH DORSET 3RDS 0
Dorset & Wilts 2 South

This weekend the bottom five sides in Dorset & Wilts 2 South division collectively conceded 304 points scoring only 12 in reply. Bridport, lying fifth in the table, played their part by beating visitors North Dorset 3rds 72-0!

Although N Dorset competed strongly at the breakdown and enjoyed parity at the set-piece they were unable to make anything of their possession, whereas the hosts were both clinical and inventive throughout the game.

The first try set the tone with the ball travelling at speed through the hands of the back line to end up with Ricky Stubbs who left the defence flat-footed to score. The conversion was missed.

The second was a carbon copy of the first, with Will Everitt adding the conversion.

Liam Poole went blindside at a ruck to confuse the opposition further and unleashed wing Toby Hawker who galloped in for Bridport's third. Place-kicking in the stiff breeze was not straightforward and the two extras went begging but Bridport led 17-0. A smart off-load in the tackle from Fred Everitt then sent Stubbs through for his second.

Tom East delivered a classic scrum half try from a quickly taken penalty to dart through the traffic and cross under the posts. A regulation conversion made it 29-0.

Stubbs duly collected his hat-trick and the extras stretched Bridport's lead to 36-0.

In the second half Bridport received two yellow cards for repeated offences but the try scoring continued unabated.

Full-back Nathan Herbert showed good pace to add a try in the corner and Al McNab was unstoppable for another. Both were converted as the century of points was reached.

Herbert and East added to their tallies as the whole team excelled in keeping the ball in hand and the movements alive.

Finally the forwards rounded the game off with a drive for the line from a quickly taken penalty and a converted try for Jamie Livingston.

Encouraging signs

BRIDPORT 2NDS 15
OAKMEDIANS 3RDS 38
THIS friendly match was played in good spirit, but Bridport were playing short handed as they lent players to North Dorset who were playing Bridport's 1st XV.

For the first time in what seems an age Bridport fielded two teams at home, and neither game disappointed.

Oakmedians opened the scoring following an interception on their own five-yard line and a lithe colt ran the length of the field to score.

The same player repeated his long run shortly after.

Bridport provided pressure in the forwards with attacks lead by captain Jamie Livingstone, Jon Butler and new player Angus Green.

Bridport's first try came from Josh Walton and a series of attacks on the Oaks line.

But the visitors responded immediately with a try from a period of good handling open play.

Bridport kept attacking and earned a penalty in the 22. They took a quick penalty and Oaks were found napping.

Butler and Lance Samways threatened the line, but it was Livingstone who managed to charge over to score a fine forwards try. At the turnaround the score was 17-10 to Oaks.

Bridport made a series of changes at half time with players swapping between the two pitches.

This did the Blues (playing in Tiger livery) no favours and the Oaks managed three further tries in short order.

Bridport suffered from the loss at half time of veteran full back Mark Woolner and Oaks always seemed to have an overlap.

But their set pieces were solid and they were quick to take advantage of infringements by the visitors. Prop Tom Gamwell took two quick tap penalties and made good ground, with his second effort resulting in a try.

Hard-hitting Buster Brown made a welcome return to the side and if he can be a regular his leading of the pack will help Bridport improve their attack.

Bridport included three guests playing from other clubs, so many players were not familiar with each other. It bodes well that Bridport is starting to build a pool of players for the second string.

◆ Bridport 2nds (development squad) have a floodlight game against DORCHESTER at the Brewery Ground on Friday (7.30pm ko). The clubhouse will be open, new players wishing to try out are always welcome.

Player shortage proves too much to carry

Blandford & Sturm' Newton 2nd 3
Beaminster 1

NOT for the first time this season Beaminster Ladies travelled without a full team, but unlike the other games where they managed to avoid defeat, the hosts proved to be too strong.

A player short, and with two or three senior players under the weather from colds and flu, Beaminster battled hard, and against lesser opposition may have won the day, but Blandford's midfield comprising two young exciting prospects together with an senior player with Premier 2 experience had the edge.

The hosts held the upper hand for most of the first half, but the Beaminster defence coped well, and it took a good reaction goal to give them the lead on 15 minutes.

A ball driven into the D appeared a little high and was deflected even higher. However, quick thinking by a home player saw her raise her stick above head height and bat the ball past a startled defence.

Blandford doubled their advantage before the break when one of the home midfielders beat two opponents before firing in a shot which took a deflection off Julia May's attempted block and flew past keeper Rachel Goodfellow for an own goal.

Emily Baker saw her shot saved by the keeper as Beaminster looked to fight back, before her run and pass found May, but she shot straight at the home stopper.

The visitors still felt they could get back in the game in the second half and after changing to a more attacking formation, they did just that.

Bella Foot was making good inroads down the left side and finally got her reward with a jinking run that took her into the D where she spun around before firing in a shot from an acute angle.

With nothing to lose Beaminster kept the pressure on, but a breakthrough found the home striker on her own and she ran through to make the game safe for the hosts.

Beaminster: Rachel Goodfellow, Jenny Clarke, Georgina Baker, Sarah Davies, Julia May, Andrea Prentice, Phoebe Stewart, Emily Baker, Holly Clarke.

Hawks not too downhearted

Exeter Uni E 4 West Dorset Hawks 1
THE Hawks were not too disheartened by the defeat at the hands of the young and fit league leaders, and there were large periods of play when they matched their hosts.

The Hawks were still finding their feet when Exeter struck after just five minutes. Five minutes later Charles Davies received a harsh green card following a strong tackle resulting in a penalty corner from which the hosts scored.

Fighting an uphill battle in a difficult situation, Hawks picked up their game, and generally having to defend, they played well.

Just before half time they started to create chances of their own and Steve Mearing was unlucky to see his shot well saved by the Uni keeper.

The momentum was broken by the break and soon after the restart Exeter increased their lead. A scramble in the D saw a home player lift the ball over the prostate Alex Drew, who despite playing in goal for the first time in 10 years, pulled off a string of excellent saves.

Bridport got their reward for their hard work midway through the half when Rick Steele steered Julian May's aerial pass into the path of Mearing to score an excellent goal from a tight angle.

Looking to reduce the arrears further the Hawks were caught on the break resulting in a short corner from which Exeter profited.

Spokesman May said: "Unfortunately they are a good side with plenty of subs, and that told towards the end.

"However, it was an excellent performance with everyone playing well.

"Going two down in ten minutes was always going to be difficult, and so it proved."

Goalscoring a problem

West Dorset A 0 Sidmouth & Ottery C 1
AFTER a three week lay-off West Dorset A returned to action against lowly Sidmouth & Ottery C, but the lack of natural strikers due to injuries and player unavailability has seen them struggle to score goals, and so it proved again on Saturday.

West Dorset forced the pace for most of the first half resulting in a number of short corners from which Dan Wyatt and Henry Middleton both went close.

Midway through the first half the away side took the lead from a breakaway although the home defence felt the ball had gone out of play in the build up.

A shuffle in the home formation was required at halftime due to an injury to John Dorrner.

The second half was more even but the Sidmouth keeper was still the busier of the two, mainly from short corners as the home side struggled to break down their opponents in open play.

Great week for Thorne

CAPTAIN Chris Thorne completed a great week by first leading Bridport Men to victory over East Dorset in the Wessex League, before being a member of the top winning rink for the county.

Bridport were in great form against EAST DORSET winning 88-77 overall, and picking up all but two of the 16 points available.

Mike Fletcher, Bob Hill, Mike Long & Ken Enticott were top rink winning 33-12 at home, with Dave Roberts, Brian Galpin, Martin Grier & Brian Conisbee also victorious by 20-14.

At Christchurch Mel Hargett, Paul Tibble, Bob Taylor & Brian Rumble lost 12-21, but Thorne was again rock solid along with Barry Mapson, Brian Walsh & Ken Giles as they won 23-20.

Thorne capped a superb weekend by helping Dorset to victory as they beat Devon in the NATIONAL KNOCKOUT COMPETITION for the Liberty Trophy, as a member of the top winning rink.

Unfortunately Bridport Ladies lost their National Inter-Club Yetton Trophy Plate match against YEOVIL 72-82 overall. Francis Hewett, Pamela Daters, Pat Cornick & Margaret Clapp and Ann Perkins, Margaret Pestelle, Laura Taylor & Sue Walsh both won away 24-20 and 20-16 respectively.

However, at home they couldn't quite match their visitors with Helen Dowlings, Janet Tattershall, Leslie Broom & Nola Stephens going down 10-18, and Erica Sarson, Barbara Jenkins, Millie Meech & Annie Bowden losing 18-28.

Bridport Ladies B secured six of the available points against DORCHESTER B in the County League, winning 40-36.

Sarson, Jenkins, Mary Corfield & Mary Marsh lost 15-20, but Joan Griffiths, Penny Piither, Rosie Wilson & Janet Tattershall won 25-16 for the points.

Sylvia Fletcher, Griffiths, Jenny Harding & Janet Tattershall picked up another two points with a fine 22-18 win at the Dorset Resort.

Wight good time!

TWENTY NINE Lyme Regis Bowls Club members recently made their annual pilgrimage recently to Benbridge on the Isle of Wight for a knockout tournament.

The winning rink for the week included Lyme bowlers Paul Pomeroy and Dave Wood.

Club members are reminded that there will be a Coffee Morning at the clubhouse, on the December 12th (11am).

Everyone welcome, so bring along your friends and neighbours.

Gale guides Bridport to deserved victory

WEYMOUTH RES 1 BRIDPORT RES 2
Dorset Premier League

A NOD of the head from experienced campaigner Simon Gale gave Bridport Reserves deserved victory over their Weymouth counterparts.

Following their resounding victory over leaders Hamworthy Rec last week in the Dorset Senior Trophy, the Bees continued their good form with a convincing win, and if they had been more clinical in front of goal it could well have been more.

Such was Bridport's dominance that keeper Ashley Weeks only had to make one real save of significance; diving low to his right to hold a long shot.

Bridport started well and took the game to their hosts creating a number of opportunities, and it was against the run of play that Weymouth took the lead on 26 minutes.

Trying to play the ball out of defence a defender was robbed as he received the ball from Weeks. Oli Clayton spotting the keeper off his line, lobbed him from 35 yards.

Not disheartened Bridport Josh Baker, Tom Blair, Robin Jones and Matt Condliffe went close in in a ten-minute spell and Weymouth went in at the break a goal to the good.

Bridport, now with the elements at their back, were rewarded on the hour when Blair's jinking run along the top of the penalty area was stopped by former colleague Rhys Hayter, and Chris Herbst made no mistake from the penalty spot, firing low into the bottom left corner.

Jones then hit the post and the Terras cleared another effort off the line.

Manager Shaun Annetts' decision to send his assistant Gale into the fray proved decisive, when with ten minutes left he got his head to Baker's corner to glance a header into the top corner for the winner.

Annetts said: "The lads deserve massive credit. Confidence is like having a 12th man and we are now beginning to reap the rewards of our hard work. The spirit is good and we deserved the win."

Annetts was also quick to mention the return of assistant Mark Lock who has been missing for a few weeks due to family commitments.

"We have missed Mark who is great to have around the dressing room."

◆ With a big sea running following the latest gale from the south-west, only five of the most competent helms recently put to sea in fifth round of the COOL DOWN SERIES.

A short course was set in the lee of the Cobb with the tide an hour after high water giving sufficient depth closer to shore than would be chosen in more favourable conditions.

Force four to six winds combined with impressive waves meant that all capsized at some stage or retired to harbour, overseen by Jerry Rook and Ray Waspe in a safety Rib.

Two finishers fought it out for first place. Showing his skill as top youth helm, Cameron Moss once again helmed dad Darrol. They finished second on handicap, with Dave Stubbs & Paul Aitken beating them by seven minutes on corrected time. Result: 1st Dave Stubbs & Paul Aitken (RS 400), 2nd Cameron & Darrol Moss (RS 800).

six weeks. The first match he will miss is next Saturday's local derby at Seaton Town Reserves, the coastal neighbours played out a 0-0 draw in the reverse fixture back in August.

Dusting off the boots

Meanwhile, the Lyme first team will be hoping to play a league game for the first time in five weeks with Saturday's scheduled visit by Dawlish United.

The period of inactivity has seen the Seasiders drop to fifth in the Devon & Exeter League Division Two table, but a win on Saturday against a side who they squeezed past 2-1 with Joe Bond scoring twice in a Bill Slee Cup-tie back in October, could see them back up to third.

Kick off at the Davey Fort is 2.15pm with the club's popular annual Christmas auction following at 7pm.

Meanwhile, The Bantams face a short trip for their Perry Street League Premier Division match at Forton Rangers (2.30ko).

Both UPLYME teams games were postponed. The first team turn their attention to the Daisy Hutchings cup and a tricky-looking second round tie at home against Dowlish & Donyatt.

The Ressies head off to face Perry Street Reserves for a Division Three tussle.

Finally, hat-trick hero Dan Rendell led the way as CHARMOUTH's five-goal first half onslaught proved too much for Farway United Reserves in a John Fowler Cup win at Barrs Lane.

But the Robins, now unbeaten in seven, will be underdogs when they welcome Division One promotion contenders Hawkchurch United for a Daisy Hutchings cup tie at the weekend.
